Two Bunch Palms Guests Can Extend Their Relaxed State with a New 'Fourth Night Free' Special

DESERT HOT SPRINGS, CA (February 11, 2008) – The tranquility of the desert, the healing hot spring waters and the peace and privacy found at Two Bunch Palms Resort & Spa have likened the property to a vortex of sorts – enticing guests to extend both their relaxed state and stay. The Desert Hot Springs, CA resort now makes this easier with its “Stay Three Nights, Receive the Fourth Night Free” special.

Available now, this new offering lets guests receive four nights at Two Bunch Palms for the price of three, any time of the week.

“Due to the extremely relaxing effects the Two Bunch Palms environment and amenities have on our guests, we find that many wish to prolong their visit and that well-rested state of mind,” explains Mark Eads, general manager. “By giving a free night’s stay, we want to encourage people to completely unplug.”

And at Two Bunch Palms, detaching from the frenetic pace of the outside world is almost effortless. A stark contrast to the overly-scheduled itineraries often found at other resorts, a guest’s typical day at Two Bunch is often spent soaking in the hot mineral springs Grotto between soothing spa treatments, reading a book in the sun under a palapa, sitting by the lake listening to the gurgling hot spring streams that run throughout the property, or watching wildlife like turtles, rabbits and roadrunners make their way around the grounds.

Guests can also visit with Two Bunch Palms’ experienced Spa staff to determine which of the over 40 world-class treatments – ranging from Watsu to an Egyptian Clay Body Wrap – or spa packages is best for their individual needs.

Current room rates at Two Bunch Palms start at $225 per night for a Sunday-Thursday stay; $275 for a Friday or Saturday stay. To book the “Stay Three Nights, Receive the Fourth Night Free” special, please call (800) 472-4334 or visit www.twobunchpalms.com.

Two Bunch Palms Resort & Spa, a 56-acre natural hot mineral springs desert oasis, features suites and villas, a California-cuisine restaurant and a world-renowned spa with more than 45 treatments. A natural lithium mineral hot spring grotto flows through the heart of the property, surrounded by beautifully landscaped gardens and preserved wilderness areas.
